

Health and Safety Policy

Acro Bees Bible Time is strongly committed to encouraging our members to take part, but the health, well-being and safety of each individual is always our paramount concern. We recommend levels of training dependent on age and ability, and all taking part are to participate within these boundaries.

Health and Safety Policy:

To support our Health and Safety policy statement we are committed to the following duties:

- Undertake regular, recorded risk assessment of the premises and all activities undertaken by Acro Bees Bible Time.
- Create a safe environment by putting health and safety measures in place as identified by the assessment.
- Ensure that all members are given the appropriate level of training by regularly assessing individual ability depending on age, maturity and development.
- Ensure that all members are aware of, understand and follow the Acro Bees Bible Time health and safety policy.
- Appoint a competent member to assist with health and safety responsibilities.
- Ensure that normal operating procedures and emergency operating procedures are in place and known by all members.
- Provide access to adequate first aid facilities, telephone and qualified first aider at all times.
- Report any injuries or accidents sustained during any activity or whilst on the premises.
- Ensure that the implementation of the policy is reviewed regularly and monitored for effectiveness.

As a member you have a duty to:

- Take reasonable care for your own health and safety and that of others who may be affected by what you do or not do.
- Cooperate with Acro Bees Bible Time on health and safety issues.
- Correctly use all equipment provided by Acro Bees Bible Time.
- Not interfere with or misuse anything provided for your health, safety or welfare.
